Full job description

We have career opportunities across our 30+ offices to support your career journey and assist you in relocating to Australia. Whether you love the hustle and bustle of the city, or the laid-back lifestyle at the beach, we have opportunities to suit you!

Your new company

Hays is the leading recruitment agency across the globe and our reputation is second to none. We work with the biggest, the best and the most innovative companies in the world. This means you could be in a boardroom consulting with a global firm one day and having coffee with a start up the next. Our brand, size and reach, together with your expertise, which we develop through every step of your career, means there is no limit to the impact you can make.

Every person working at Hays is deeply passionate about people, ambitious for themselves and their team, innovative in their approach to recruitment and an expert in their industry, allowing them to provide insight to their clients and candidates alike. Whichever Hays office you step into, you'll experience the energy, buzz and instant comradery that defines our culture.

Your new role

As a Recruiting Expert at Hays, you'll be in charge of managing your own portfolio of clients and candidates. Every day, you'll win business, consult with organisations about their recruitment needs and help shape people's careers. At Hays, you will never stand still because we harness your potential. You'll embark on a perpetual learning journey from day one, whether that be through our world-renowned Associate Consultant training programme or Experienced joiner programme. You'll be supported to reach your potential every day, combined with transparent promotion criteria, there is no limit to your career progression.

What you'll need to succeed

We hire people based on their potential. Whether you're new to recruitment or you are an experienced recruiter, our people come from diverse backgrounds; from world class athletes to graduates, tradies to lawyers! What every single person has in common is the ambition to drive their own future, a determination to build a long-lasting career and the motivation to exceed sales targets and earn what they deserve!

What you'll get in return

We know that when you're feeling your best, you are able to perform your best. That's why we support flexibility, so you can integrate work and life in a way that is optimal for you and our business. This includes hybrid working arrangements and our Flex@Hays program. You'll also have access to a broad range of employee benefits, including our wellness program "Flourish", our Global volunteering program "Hays Helps" and a variety of exciting awards and rewards! And you'll be part of a business that celebrates success like no other. To learn more about our employee benefits, visit our benefits page here.
