Full job description

- Play an influential role in a hugely successful privately owned family business
- Develop and implement procurement processes

About Our Client

The leader in their field, this business has grown from a small family outfit over the last 50 years to now boasting over 10k active skus, multiple warehouse across Australia and New Zealand with manufacturing operations both on and off shore. With circa 300 employees, this business treats its staff as their family and as such have manage to retain them, demonstrating brilliant tenure amongst their leaders.

Job Description

Your mandate is to growth the product portfolio by introducing new product ranges, drive the existing ranges and expand the relationship with our suppliers to increase commercial opportunities.

- Manage existing & new product ranges
- Selects, evaluates and manages vendor partnerships
- Supplier price negotiation
- Sourcing and managing a large number of SKUs from overseas manufacturers

- Identification of New Product Opportunities through Market Research and Analysis

The Successful Applicant

You will be degree qualified or have tertiary qualifications relevant to sourcing and/or product management.

We are looking to a charismatic person who is great with their stakeholders

You will be able to demonstrate strong sourcing capability from manufacturing sites both on shore and from China

A solutions focused problem solver will do well in this role

If you are familiar with managing a high sku count, this will benefit you

Advanced excel skills will be required for this role.

Ideally you will have experience from the wholesale sector

What's on Offer

A very competitive salary package with a good bonus (which has been paying in full) for the right candidate. The business is ideally located so has very good access for all transport types, as such, the business does expect you to be in the office for this role.
